

Norman Hendricks Aldridge

April 8, 1938 - August 24, 2009

Norman Hendricks Aldridge was born April 8, 1938 in Kokomo, Indiana to W. Page and Anna Mae (Hendrickson) Aldridge. Norman grew up in Elwood, Indiana where he attended College Corner and Washington Elementary schools and went on to graduate from Wendell Wilkie High School in Elwood in 1956. After high school, Norman attended Ball State University and Fort Wayne Business College. While in school at Elwood, Norman was active in both Band and Marching Band where he played the clarinet, tuba and trombone.

Norman was drafted into the United States Army in 1961. He served his basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and was stationed in Colorado. He was honorably discharged in August of 1963 holding the rank of Private First Class.

Norman married Pam Nance on December 4, 1965 at the Church of God in Elwood, Indiana, and to this union, three sons were born: Derek Alan, Clinton Nance, and Keith Arin. The family made their home in Indiana until moving to Wisconsin in 1981. They have made their home in Nebraska since 1983.

Norman worked for 31 years for Continental Can, which became Crown Cork & Seal. He was a cost accountant when he retired in 1992. He was a member of the Elks Club, and often could be found playing golf or tennis, watching a

Nebraska football game, or enjoying jazz music. Norman will be remembered as an intense, hard working, and proud man, who was happiest when he could play a good round of golf, or enjoy a great steak. But most of all, Norman was a proud husband, father, and grandfather. His family was everything to him, and he will be greatly missed by all.

Norman passed away on Monday, August 24, 2009 at the Marquis Place in Elkhorn, Nebraska at the age of 71 years. He is preceded in death by his father, W. Page Aldridge. Norman is survived by his wife Pam of Elkhorn, sons: Derek, Clinton and wife Mindy of Knoxville, Tennessee, and Keith, granddaughter Dagny Aldridge, mother Anna Mae Aldridge of Elwood, IN, sisters and brothers-in-law Page Ann and Phil Fettig of Elwood, IN, Carolyn and Lonnie Watson of Tipton, IN, and brother Dave Aldridge of Elwood, IN.
