

Patricia Jean Hueftle

January 16, 1933 - February 11, 2024

Patricia (Rupe) Hueftle was born January 16, 1933, in Eustis, Nebraska, and passed away on February 11, 2024, at the age of 91. Pat was preceded in death by her husband Marvin Hueftle and daughter Sheryl. Pat leaves behind four daughters: Kris (Rod) Walker, Patricia (Jim) Sherman, Jill (Jon) Johnson, and Jennifer (Mark) Kerns. Pat's family was her passion, and she took great pride and joy in her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.

Education and knowledge were important to Pat. After high school, she earned her teaching certificate and taught Kindergarten through 6th grade in a one room schoolhouse. Pat retired from teaching to focus on her family after her first child, but education continued to be her calling as she shared her skills with church students, 4-H members, piano students, and her family.

Marvin and Pat spent time in Manhattan, Kansas during his military career and later farmed in Eustis, Nebraska and Wellfleet, Nebraska. Pat's home was filled with music, books, and delicious food. She was a talented cook and embodied “farm to table” before it was a trend.

Pat and Marvin surprised themselves with a second act in Omaha, Nebraska. In the city, Pat had a very unsuccessful two-week stint as a telemarketer, better luck in retail, and found her stride as a tour guide at Boys Town.

Pat loved flowers and gardening and took pride in cultivating vegetables and (especially) flowers. Her love of gardening continued to her last days as she took great pride in the amaryllis bulbs she tended in her apartment.

Family and friends knew to expect cards and letters as Pat corresponded continually. She loved collecting stationary, stamps, cards, and stickers for her letters. She appreciated receiving mail just as much. Ribbons of cards adorned her homes, and she delighted in showing visitors the latest cards she received.
