“ Very sorry to hear of Bud's passing. I first met Bud in the early eighties at the World Herald. Didn't see him for several years until he had retired He used to stop in to the Hy-Vee gas station where I worked. We would chat a bit and I could see he had a little bigger sense of humor after retirement. A good man.

“ Sue and family, where do I start. We have so many memories with you two sweet people, all our trips in the van with the gang to all the Nebraska games. What fun we had and so many memories were made each time. The best one is when we went to eat and the waitress couldn't speak English very well and her words were, "You go, you stay". We have had lots of laughs over that one and then you wrote down everything we all said on each trip, we all gathered at our house and you read them to us. We laughed so hard! Rick and I will never forget all the fun we have had together. I know he is walking, laughing and having great fun again. I am sure LaVonne and Leroy welcomed him into heaven along with the Lord. We are so sorry that he will not be with you and the family any longer but it was time, he is now at peace. May God give you all peace, comfort, strength during this difficult time.
Love you,
Rick & Marie

“ Sue and Beth, I am so sorry for your loss! You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. It's a cliché to say he's in a better place, but I know he is - what could be better than heaven? 🙏

“ Sue, and the entire extended family, we are so sorry for your loss. Know that all of you are right now in my and Suzanne's thoughts and prayers.

Bud was very special to me, in fact, he's responsible for my having joined the Catholic Church (along with my wife's prayers). Bud would, in his most giving way, bring communion to my mother-in-law who lived with us until she had a stroke. During those weekly visits Bud and I would talk and he was the one who really planted the seed of my joining the Church, which I eventually did, through the RCIA program. Thank you!

Bud also was responsible for recommending to Father Gary that I take over the men's funeral altar servers group at St. Pat's when he retired. I was so honored that he had such trust in me. He was the consummate gentleman. Bud, you are greatly missed and the world has lost a great person, but fortunately Heaven has gained a Saint, and I'm sure, you're already doing great things. Till our paths cross again, take care my friend.

With the most profound love, Doug and Suzanne Kibbe
