“ To the George Family and their extended families

Both my parents have been gone for some time now so I can not only imagine your loss but have felt it as well.

Nothing can prepare you for the loss of someone who has been the world to you.

There is not a day goes by that I don't remember my parents and that brings me great peace and joy. I had always thought that after awhile that the memories would fade, but they don't. They get brighter.

Sorry I cannot be there but know that I am thinking of you and will say a prayer to give you and your family strength and faith.

Seek comfort in each other.
