

Robert Tyler Lear

June 14, 1994 - July 5, 2020

Due to Covid 19 precautions, the family has requested that all who attend both the visitation and ceremony for Tyler, please wear a mask, and respect social distancing recommendations.

Tyler Lear was born on June 14th 1994, to Josh and Cindy Lear of Omaha, Nebraska. He attended the University of Nebraska Lincoln and was a member of the FIJI fraternity house. Upon graduation he returned to Omaha to begin the next phase of his life, and to be near his friends and family. Tyler had an outgoing and boisterous personality and a love for adventure all throughout his life. He passed away unexpectedly on July 5th, 2020. Tyler was preceded in death by his father Joshua, and grandfather William John Lear. He is survived by his mother Cindy Lear of Omaha, brothers Kyle, and wife Lenae Lear of Omaha, and Spencer Lear of Lincoln, grandparents Cathie Lear of Oregon, and Bob & Lori Crawford of Sioux Falls, SD, and niece and nephew Adelaine and Malcolm Lear.

Funeral to be held Sunday, July 12th at Reichmuth Funeral Home, 21901 W. Maple Road, Elkhorn. Open visitation from 1-4pm with a service to follow for Tyler's friends and family starting at 5pm. The family requests all reasonable precautions regarding covid-19 to ensure the safety of vulnerable persons and all attendees. Masks will be required at all times and guests are encouraged to bring their own, but they will be provided on site as well. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Tyler's name can be made to the Nebraska Humane Society.
