

Robert Thomas O'Donnell

July 21, 1934 - August 30, 2023

Robert 'Bob' O'Donnell was born July 21, 1934, in Omaha, NE, to Tom and Myrtle O'Donnell. He grew up in North Omaha and attended Holy Angels, Creighton Prep, and Creighton University.

Bob married Susan Reihart on September 6, 1969. Daughter, Kelly Ann, joined the family 3 days after Bob's 37th birthday and son, Steven, joined four and a half years later.

Bob was a family man and a sports enthusiast. He was a lover of Husker football and was instrumental in the Omaha Softball Association (OSA). Bob played slow-pitch softball for many years and could be heard cheering Steve on in soccer from the sidelines. Bob and Sue enjoyed years of bowling leagues and Bob also participated in a golf league.

Bob spent 39 years of his banking career at Omaha National Bank/First Tier/US Bank finally retiring from Collections in 1996. In retirement, Bob and Sue sprouted wings and enjoyed trips to Ireland, Paris, and many stateside destinations including the yearly trip to Vegas.

Bob added the title of "Grandpa" when grandsons Ryan, Collin, and Isaac were born. Amelia Rae officially promoted him to "Great Grandpa." He never missed an opportunity to play on the floor with the kids or make silly faces/sounds. Bob will be remembered for his faith, unconditional love and dedication to his family.
