

Robert Lee Wuestewald

September 13, 1956 - September 21, 2010

Robert Lee Wuestewald was born on September 13, 1956 in West Point, Nebraska to August and Mary Ann (Recker) Wuestewald. He grew up in West Point where he attended Guardian Angels grade school and graduated from West Point Central Catholic High School. As a young boy, Bob enjoyed hunting and baseball.

Bob married Linda Roth on August 7, 1976 at St. Mary's Catholic Church in West Point, Nebraska and to this union three children were born: Nichole, Jeremy and Jacob. Bob and Linda have raised their family in West Point, Valley and Omaha.

Bob has spent his entire career in the grocery business. He managed and later owned the Jack & Jill store in West Point and managed the Jack & Jill store in Valley, Bag-n-Save in Omaha and currently was an assistant manager at No Frills in Elkhorn. Bob was passionate about sports, playing soft ball and golfing with his sons and father-in-law and supporting the Huskers, Cubs and Bears. While Bob many times would work long hours, he found time to coach his sons' teams and always let them know how proud his was of their efforts. His daughter, son in law and their 3 children (Peter Allric, Jayden Robert and Ariana Paige) were very close to his heart. He loved playing with the grandchildren.

Bob passed away on September 21, 2010 at the age of 54 years and 8 days. He was preceded in death by his brother David. Bob is survived by wife Linda; sons Jeremy and Jacob both of Omaha; daughter and son-in-law Nichole and Peter Kappel of Omaha; 3 grandchildren; parents August and Mary Ann Wuestewald of West Point, NE; Siblings Kevin and Julie, Kenny and Patrice, Todd and Jenny, Lori Heller, Tami Scheuth and Brenda Wuestewald all of West Point, NE . In-Laws Floyd and Dorothy Roth.
