

Russell Duane Burge

January 28, 1955 - July 28, 2013

Russell Duane Burge was born January 28, 1955 in Omaha, Nebraska to Melvin Lloyd and Mary Ann (Schwasinger) Burge. He grew up in Omaha, where he attended Edison Grade School, and graduated from Burke High School in 1974. As a young boy, Russell was active in Cub Scouts, the ROTC, and had an interest in tropical fish.

Russell served two tours of duty in the United States Navy. He first enlisted in February 1977, and was finally honorably discharged in August 1987, holding the rank of Petty Officer 2nd Class. He served most of his duty as a cook, and was very proud to have served his country.

Russell was a lifelong bachelor, but he stayed active with many different organizations and memberships. He was a member of the Benson VFW Post #2503, American Legion Post #1, Forty and Eight, and the Knights of Columbus. He was also a member of a 12 step program for many years.

Russell enjoyed cooking, gardening, coin collecting, and stamp collecting. He liked the color red, and was an avid Nebraska Cornhuskers fan. He was a country music fan, and his favorite song was "Wild Fire" by Michael Murphy. He was content to spend time riding his bicycle, and was always ready for a meal at Church Street Café in Valley, or Anthony's Steakhouse in Omaha. He could often be heard saying "whatever", "What's up dude/dudette?", or "Easy does it". He didn't take kindly to people being tardy, or being disrespectful of others. He will be remembered as a giving, punctual, holy, humble, and independent man, who never gave up in the face of intimidation, and a man who was patriotic, and loved spending time with his family.

Russell passed away unexpectedly on Sunday, July 28, 2013 at his home in Valley, Nebraska. He was preceded in death by his mother Mary Ann Burge and sister Sheryl Lee Burge. Russell is survived by his brothers: Keith & his wife Maggie of Waterloo, NE, and Steve "Grizz" Burge of Drumright, OK, sister Karen Lucht of Gretna, NE, father Melvin Burge of Plattsmouth, NE, and many nieces and nephews.

Russell D. Burge, age 58, of Valley, NE, died 7/28/13. Preceded in death by mother Mary Ann Burge and sister Sheryl Burge. Survived by brothers: Keith & wife Maggie of Waterloo, NE, and Steve "Grizz" Burge of Drumright, OK, sister Karen Lucht of Gretna, NE, father Melvin Burge of Plattsmouth, NE, many nieces and nephews.

Funeral service Saturday, 8/3/13 11 AM at the funeral home. Interment Prospect Hill Cemetery, Elkhorn, with military honors by American Legion Post 1. Visitation 3-8 PM with the family receiving friends from 6-8 PM. Memorials to the family, to be distributed to several of Russell's favorite charities.

Tribute Wall

“ Russell Duane Burge

December 10, 2022 at 09:12 AM

“ Dear Burge Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to mankind and who can understand it? It can and does have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline; "When Death is Swallowed Up Forever....." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states: "And he (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. " The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope for Dead Loved Ones"? If you have any Questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences, may the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,
Brandy Molina*

Brandy Molina - July 30, 2013 at 02:53 PM