“Pete and Kenneth and families, so sorry for your loss. Your aunt Ruth was one of my favorite people ever. When my mom was alive we used to visit her and your mom, Irene, at least once or twice a year and quite often went with them to Farmer Browns for dinner . Even after my mom passed away, my husband and i along with our two boys continued the going out to eat tradiction for many years. I miss your mom so much and will miss Ruth equally. When we went to Irene's house to visit the two of them, it was traditional that she made ham or chicken salad sandwiches, had potato chips, made a jello salad and of course peach pie for dessert. Again sorry for your loss as well as ours. She was a wonderful lady as well as was your mother. They were quite a pair. Loved them both so much.
