“ The world has lost one of the most caring, lovable, sweet, hard working ladies with Sandy's passing. I have so many great memories of our years working together at Gateway to look back on. For someone of her stature, she was intimidated by no one and after one meeting with her over lunch or dinner or just playing keno, you realized how special she really was. I never met someone who loved chocolate more than Sandy. It cost me many a Hersheys bar to get my keno tickets printed.!!! Though I will miss her along with every one else that she touched with her kindness, God evidently has an immediate need for her. Rest in peace Sandy my dear friend.

“ Words can't begin to describe your loss right now. You are all in my thoughts and prayers in this difficult time. Cherish your memories of Sandy, I know that when I remember her laugh, it brings a smile to my face. Love, Chris
