“ Julie and Dave, I'd never have missed being there in support and sharing in your grief for the loss of your beautiful boy if not for good reason. I will be in touch.

Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers, and I pray God will see you all through this difficult time and on your path towards one day meeting again with Seth.

Hugs to all.

“ Seth was such a funny student. He took my acting class at Mount Michael, and was always game for the ridiculous fun that came with performing. I will never forget how he played Baghera in our production of The Jungle Book, mining every laugh he could out of wearing a black unitard (to look like the panther he was playing) and twirling his black tail. What a kind and hilarious kid I remember from so many years ago. So sad to hear of this.

Mr Robinson, thank you so much for that wonderful memory. We have talked about that many times over the years but you described it even better than I remember it. He really enjoyed his time in your acting class especially the Jungle Book production. Your kind words are much appreciated at this time. God bless you. Dave and Julie Witulski
