“ What a blessing it was to know you! It is so hard for me to believe that you are gone! I will always and forever keep you in my heart! I can only wish to one day be like you!

“ Sharon was funny, silly, yet the hardest working person I knew. She could dress up and still unplug a toilet if need be. Sharon taught me a lot when I worked with her. We had ups and downs. The picnic table was our conference table, and if we didn't have a paper to write on, Sharon had a napkin to plan. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. Rest in Peace, Sharon.

“ Davis Family, As I learned the sad news today of Sharon's passing I also learned that many of us had been thinking of dear Sharon last week. For me, I found I was missing Sharon's laughter, warmth and always positive attitude. I wish I had been able to speak to her before her passing. My deepest condolence to all her friends and especially the family. With love
