“ I sat next to John at work for a number of years while he we were teaching at MCC at the Elkhorn campus. He loved his family dearly and spoke of his three children with much pride. While we may not have agreed much on politics, he was always willing to listen and indulged my rants. When my kids were young, we enjoyed making a stop at the Miller home every Halloween where, ,in addition to candy, he always had a can of beer for me. I am so sad to hear about his sudden passing. I know he will be missed by those who were fortunate enough to know him.

“ I had the great privilege of working alongside Sheila at Westridge elementary- phenomenal teacher and even better human being. She always had a sweet smile and kind word for all the staff, students and families. I know how proud she was of all her children and grandchildren as she would frequently share pictures and family stories. I'm truly sorry for your loss and sending prayers for all of you. ❤️ Nicole Heller

“ Sheila was an amazing lady. A great neighbor and friend. On several occasions Trudy and I would walk with her and Brinkley along Cornhusker. She helped me several times by staying with my Lady while I ran errands. Very sweet lady. Prayers and thoughts with her beautiful family.

“ Oh our sweet Mrs. Miller. You loved and cared for my 3 children. How lucky we were to have you 3 different times. Stephanie, BJ and Chris were so sad when I shared the news. Chris named all of the Westridge teachers and how they influenced him to go into education. You'd be so proud that that ornery 3rd grader is now a well respected middle school teacher who many say is a strict but fair one.

Our sympathies to your family. Such a horrific accident that took your sweet parents to heaven. I think the angels are loving your beautiful smile.

“ John and Sheila were part of the Seeking Truth Catholic Bible Study Family and traveled with us on pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Their joy and enthusiasm to walk where Jesus walked was contagious. They continued to support the ministry until the present day. "Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
