“ Dear Cle and Family,

Deepest sympathy in the loss of your wonderful lady, Sherry. The world has lost a shining light. Visiting with Sherry when she was able to make our JCHS class reunions [the last one in 2005] was always a highlight. She became an adopted 'bluejay' for our class and will always be fondly remembered. To know her, even briefly, was to love and admire her. I pray your many fond memories of good times shared throughout your lives together will sustain you in the difficult days and weeks ahead. May God bless you, Amy, the grandchildren and Steve. Gone to rest, but never forgotten. In sympathy and friendship, Pen, Ron and Cindy Zara

“ Dear Cle and family,

Sherry will be remembered as a remarkable lady. May the peace which comes from memories of love shared comfort you now and in the days ahead.

*Our thoughts and prayers go out to you,
Sheryl and Mike*

“ *Dear Cle, and Family,
Cle, I met Sherry at our class reunion. Unfortunately I didn't ever really have a chance to get to know her, but in that brief meeting I could see that she was a beautiful lady with a wonderful spirit. Of course, it did not surprise me that you would be married to someone so 'special'! Over the years I have heard many wonderful stories about Sherry and the love you shared ... my prayer for you and your children and grandchildren is that the memory of that love and the years you were together will sustain you now and for the rest of your lives. May God Bless and keep you close.
Love,
Mary Louise & Tommy*
