

Shirley Ann Gray

December 10, 1937 - September 9, 2021

Shirley Ann (Attleson) Gray was born December 10, 1937 in Jamestown, North Dakota to Henry and Carrie (Vondergeest) Attleson. She grew up in Jamestown where she attended school, graduating from Jamestown High School in 1955. As a young girl, Shirley was active in 4-H, was involved at her church, enjoyed roller skating, and was a gifted seamstress.

Shirley married Leeman Gray on January 7, 1956 at Trinity Lutheran Church in Jamestown. The two had met in school, and were inseparable. They moved numerous times throughout the years, living in Dallas, Texas, different towns in Kansas, and then came to Omaha, before settling in Yutan.

Shirley worked in the office for Ted Grace homes, and she stayed busy with her church activities, and antiques. She enjoyed playing cards and traveling. She loved animals and was a huge Huskers fan. She was known for keeping a clean home, and was a talented baker and cook. She was content taking a leisurely car ride, and looked forward to dinner at Farmer Brown's.

Shirley died at South Haven Living Center in Wahoo, Nebraska on Thursday, September 9, 2021 at the age of 83 years, 8 months, and 30 days. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband Leeman, sister Janet Anderson, and special friend Ken Storm. Shirley is survived by her niece and nephew; Sherry & Gene Rode of Marion, ND and David & Lynne Gray of Commerce

City, CO, 4 “Grandkids” Ashley and Justin Gray, Tina Hanson and Ethan Rode, and care-giver and special friend, Beverly Storm.

“ Gene and Sherry and your family, so sorry for your loss, know it has been a long struggle for Shirley.. Had many great times going to different eating places when we both worked for different home builders. Shirley had a good work ethic and did a great job for Ted Grace Homes. Shirley liked everything in place and was neat as a pin. Know she is at peace now, God bless her memory.
