“ I give my sincere condolence for the death of your loved one. GOD is the one that will comfort you. 1 Peter 5:7 tells us to “Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you”; He will console you during this difficult time. Through the ransom of his beloved son, Jesus, he has given us the resurrection hope. We are assured by Jesus' own words at John 11:25 which state; I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercised faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; Therefore it will be possible to see your loved one again. If you would like to learn more about the resurrection go to <https://www.jw.org/en/>

“ I have very fond memories of Steve as a teenager. He had one really nice truck. Loud as ever but only got like 6 miles to the gallon. He loved to play the guitar and sing John Denver songs. I know that he will be missed by all his family and friends.

Know that you are all in Meg, Brittany and Is thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

Sincere sympathies,

David

“ La Casa Pizza, driving to DeSoto Bend, your love for the outdoors and your special addiction to The Weather Channel are just a few of the lasting memories I'll have of you, dad. Whenever the sky turned the slightest hint of dark gray I could always count on a text from you alerting me that "a storm could be brewing in my area." I always got a good chuckle, but I know you were just looking out for me.

Although your time on earth wasn't nearly long enough, I will cherish the time we spent together, especially over the last 15 years or so.

I know you're in a happier and better place now, where you can spend more time with your beautiful daughter and parents. Hopefully there are plenty of big bucks and geese up there for you to hunt, and fish bigger than any of your massive lure collection have ever seen.

I love you dad, and I'll miss you every day.
