

Suzanne Joy Patterson

November 9, 1954 - December 4, 2014

Suzanne Joy (Luevane) Patterson was born on November 9, 1954 in Riverside, California to Sanford and Maria (Manunta) Luevane. Sanford was in the Air Force, so Suzanne grew up in many towns around the country before the family settled in Valley, Nebraska in 1972 and it was here that she graduated from Valley High School in 1973. Suzanne attended Midland College in Fremont, Nebraska for two years before she headed into the work force. She worked at Mutual of Omaha until 1977 when she joined Physician's Mutual where she remained for 29 years. As a young girl, Suzanne enjoyed bowling.

Suzanne married Harry Patterson on December 31, 1977 at the Immanuel Chapel in Omaha, Nebraska. Suzanne and Harry have always made their home in Omaha.

Suzanne was well loved, always smiling and even during difficult times, she did not complain. She was caring, compassionate and courageous and provided loving care for her mother during her final illness. Suzanne enjoyed spending time at her computer, loud rock music, following NASCAR, especially Danica and Jr. and true to her heritage, Italian food.

Suzanne passed away on Thursday, December 4, 2014 at the Hospice House in Omaha at the age of 60 years and 25 days. She was preceded in death by her parents Sandy and Maria. Suzanne is survived by her husband Harry; son and daughter-in-law Christopher and Melissa of Oakland, CA; granddaughters Amelia and Natalie Ann; siblings Jim and Cheryl Luevane of Colorado Springs, CO, John and Jean Luevane of Lubbock, TX and Maria Luevane of Fremont, NE and nieces and nephews.
