Terrence G. O'Neil

August 27, 1953 – June 29, 2025

Terrence G. O'Neil, of Omaha, Nebraska, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by family and love. Born and raised in Omaha, Terry was a proud lifelong resident who deeply valued his community and the people in it.

Terry dedicated 39 years of service to Douglas County as a dispatcher, retiring as a respected supervisor. In addition to his career, Terry also served as a volunteer firefighter for Boys Town, where his commitment and bravery earned him the honor of Firefighter of the Year multiple times. Known for his calm under pressure, quick wit, and steady leadership, Terry played a vital role in keeping the community safe and connected in more ways than one.

Outside of work, Terry found joy in life's simple pleasures. He loved casting a line on the water, playing a few rounds of Keno, watching baseball—especially cheering on his beloved New York Yankees—and sharing laughs and a couple of beers with good friends. His sense of humor, generosity, and unwavering loyalty made him someone people were proud to know.

Terry's greatest pride and joy was his family. He is survived by his nine children: Shawn (Candice), Kevin (Sara), Tim (Lindsay), Keara (Jill), Molly

(Sam), Tom (Melissa), Monica, Clare, and Connor; and ten beloved grandchildren: Nolan, Madison, Easton, Berklie, Finley, Emersyn, Aubrey, Elizabeth, Elliott and Elias. He is also survived by his sister, Peggy (Bill) Monzu; his brother, Daniel O'Neil; and many loving nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Genevieve O'Neil, and his brother, Jim O'Neil.

In Lieu of Flowers, Family suggests Memorials to St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

“ Missing you already Terry. You were my first trainer at 911 and, I'm still there 27 years later. I wish I could be there to send you home but, am not able to be there. To your family I extend my deepest condolences and prayers. I light this yellow candle for your years on the gold line serving your community and ensuring the next generation of dispatchers.
