“ We have been out of town for some time and I was stunned today to see that your 24 yr old son is buried close to our 24 yr old son. Please accept our deepest condolences for your loss. I wish I could tell you that the pain will go away, but it will subside as time goes by. It is has been over 8 yrs now but we still go see him often and I will think of you when I am there. Maybe we will see you there sometime. God Bless him for his service.

Respectfully,
Doug Roberts

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. We never have enough time with those we love. May beautiful memories bring you comfort and peace in the days ahead. Rest assured that God cares about your grief. Psalms 34:18 says, God is close to the brokenhearted, saves those who are crushed in spirit." The bible promised that soon God will bring all suffering and death to an end.

“ Dear loved ones, Nothing can compare Tyler to anybody I know, because he was the bravest and most looked-up-to boy of his age when I knew him. His parents left a strong influence of kindness and thoughtfulness on this gentle one. One thinks that their sons could be just like him. (And can you believe it, I wish that my son had all the same qualities!~!). Far from heaven, we can touch the inspiration it leaves on us all, and we know that Tyler is right there with Him. Our children, Georgi and Mary, are sending their wishes that you remember him because of all the WONDERFUL qualities that he has. He is not gone from us; he is always with us. My husband Gene sends his blessings. You're always in our hearts and our prayers. Carla

“ My Brother Tyler was to me a great American and wonderful human being. We share a common MOS. That alone forms an unbreakable bond. But Tyler was a GIANT Drag Racing fan too and would come by our ESPN booth at the races. He lit up the room.
My thoughts and prayers go to his family, friends, and Brothers.

“ I was devastated to hear the news about Tyler when I got back to work this Monday. I know none of you know me, but I felt compelled to leave a short message. I work at Lowes and often saw Tyler in there shopping. He was always a bright spot in my day. He was such a sweet, young man. Always kind, happy and positive. I will miss his smiling face. You and your families are in my prayers. I hope you find comfort in God, family and friends. I am so sorry for your loss.
