

Vera Amelia Oliver

September 21, 1942 - December 24, 2022

Vera was born September 21, 1942, in Hutchinson, Kansas, to Robert and Hazel Breidenstein. She grew up in the small town of Arlington, Kansas and graduated from High School there on May 20, 1960. Vera moved to Colorado Springs, Colorado about a year later. It was there that she met her husband Robert Oliver, and they married in April, 1963. To that union were born three beautiful children: John, Julie, and Jason. Her husband Bob was a pastor for some years in California and Washington. In later years they divorced.

Vera is survived by her three children: John Oliver (Jennifer), Waterloo, Nebraska, Julie Daubenspeck (Vincent), Fort Myers, Florida, and Jason Oliver (Christine), Shingle Springs, California; grandchildren: Matthew Oliver, David Oliver (Maddi), Andrew Oliver (Hailey), Adelene Havekost (Caleb), Adam Oliver, Benjamin Oliver, Emily Oliver, Mykal Daubenspeck (Miriam), Carter Daubenspeck (Dakota), and Jacqueline Bradshaw (James); and great grandchildren: Landon Oliver, Isaac Oliver, Easton Oliver, Jude Daubenspeck, Walter Daubenspeck, Niles Daubenspeck, Summer Bradshaw, Amelia Bradshaw, Leeland Daubenspeck, Raylynn Daubenspeck, Oliver Daubenspeck, and Shalom Daubenspeck. Also surviving are two very dear sisters: Geraldine Gough (Melvin) in Kansas, and Patricia Herring in Texas, and numerous nieces and nephews. Vera was predeceased by her parents, grandparents, niece Rene Short and brother-in-law Carl Herring.

Vera worked most of her adult life in banking and later in insurance. She has always been involved in Bible Studies and Church activities. Vera accepted

Christ as her Lord and Saviour at age 17, and she would tell you that He has made all the difference in her Life!! Vera was a member of Westside Church, Omaha. Vera's two hobbies were reading and solving jigsaw puzzles. Vera would want you to know that if you are here today and have never found Jesus as your Lord and Saviour that she would pray you would find Him today!

Memorials are suggested to: Westside Church, or Samaritan Purse.

“ I knew Vera from her time in Petaluma and Folsom, CA. She was a great Bible study leader and friend. I always admired her countenance; she was a true role model, inspiration and witness for being a dedicated Christian woman. Her love for God was evident every day that I knew her. My condolences to her family.
