“ To the Baty Family: Wes will was a rough on the exterior, but once you broke through that thick layer... He was had a heart full of kindness to those he let in as friends. Back in my younger years, he could hold many a story while enjoying an adult beverage, yet by the end of a conversation he in his own way left one with a wise educational life lesson. Wes was a kind-hearted caring person that tried to let people think he was a tough leave-me-alone man but deep down truly loved his family and those he included into his circle of friends. Sending my many prayers of comfort to all of his family and those who loved him. My condolences Cyndi Musel

“ Grace I didn't know Wes hardly at all. Tried to find address to sent you a card but couldn't. So sending my sympathy thru this web site. Even at this difficult time, you are not alone. Those who care for you hold you close in heart and wish you peace. I will be sending a memorial to St. John's. I went to church on Palm Sunday for the first time. I believe I will continue to go. I have gotten my shots so feel more safe. Just hate wearing those silly masks. But I believe it for the other people. God Bless you and your family.
