“ My husband and I are truly sorry for your tremendous loss and would like to express our condolences to the entire family. We cannot imagine the great pain and sorrow you are experiencing during this very difficult time. It is our sincere hope you find comfort in knowing that God has promised to "swallow up death forever" (Isaiah 25:8), and that he will resurrect our dear loved ones who have passed away. (John 5:28). May your many great memories help you find peace and comfort as you go through the coming days.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. It's been far too long since I last saw my cousin. I loved reading his tribute and learning more about Bill the man. I would have enjoyed knowing him as an adult. I can feel how much his family will miss him, and I can also feel how wonderful are the memories he has left behind. May love and peace surround you all.

“ My heart breaks for the fact that my mom just lost her best friend. Bill was such a talented man from creating amazing digital designs on his computer to beautifully crafted woodwork. I am sad to hear that is no longer with us.
