“ Uncle "Bill" - I love you so much, it's been a few days since you last were here with us. We were out at your final resting place today to make sure its all ready for you to enter life again with both your brothers. You no longer have to be upset or worry about how to do life without them. Hopefully, they brought you into their loving arms in the sky, as only big brothers should. We will decorate your resting place as soon as we get another chance but for now, sleep peacefully. See you soon. Love, your beloved Grand Niece, Ashly.
